

All the perks, all in one place

Our plans offer numerous programs you can use to live healthier. Now, with My Rewards, we provide a one-stop shop to access all the rewards and incentives that encourage you to participate.

Easily find your eligible rewards with My Rewards

No more searching around for your plan incentives. My Rewards has everything in one easy-to-find place.

While signed in to your HealthPartners account, select the trophy icon near the top of the page to access My Rewards. There, you'll find which rewards you're eligible for as well as a record of those you've already earned.

Incentives include gift cards and more

My Rewards will be continually updated with new incentives and rewards to encourage you on your health journey and using your health plan. Rewards include gift cards and other monetary incentives. Activities with rewards that are available now are:

Medication Therapy Management

Connect with a clinical pharmacist who will work closely with your doctors to make sure your prescriptions are working together as they should.

Living Well

Take the health assessment and complete your well-being activities.

Mental Health Hub survey

Take our quick Mental Health Hub survey to help us identify areas of improvement and what's working.

Get to know your online account

Make sure your account information is up to date, go paperless, and visit our new medical cost estimator tool.

Talk with your doctor

Schedule a visit to connect with your doctor and discuss your health and habits. It's a great place to start for preventive care, plus you'll get health tips tailored just for you.
